As I sprayed Roja Oceania by Roja Dove onto my pulse points, the whispers of admiration began. Heads turned, and strangers exchanged knowing glances all because I was wearing a fragrance that exuded pure wealth.

The Scent Profile

Roja Oceania is an odyssey for the senses, transporting me to a tropical haven where the air is crisp, and the sun dips into the ocean. The initial burst of bergamot and mandarin orange is invigorating, like a morning sunrise over the turquoise waters. As the scent unfolds, a subtle sweetness from vanilla and tonka bean emerges, harmonizing with the aquatic notes of sea salt and ambergris.

Longevity & Sillage

Roja Oceania lingers on my skin for an impressive 8 hours, its sillage (the fragrance trail left behind) a delicate whisper that teases the senses. The dry-down is mesmerizing a subtle blend of musk, cedarwood, and sandalwood creates a sense of warmth, as if the tropical breeze has caressed your skin.
